MINISTER OF EDUCATION

Mature Committed People . . .

. . . exhibit a cooperative spirit. This statement is especially true in Sunday School when Sunday School room assignments are changed. Lately several of our Sunday School classes and departments have had opportunity to demonstrate this truth.

Our renovation process has meant that Young Adult 1, Young Adult 2 and Median Adult 3 have had to vacate their normal space. To accommodate this relocation, two of our Senior Adult 2 classes have moved. I'm proud, impressed, motivated, but not surprised by this cooperative spirit. Mrs. McCarty and Mrs. Dove's classes are some of our best. They not only are interested in our total Sunday School, they also lead us in care and love for their members — always contacting, always loving, always ministering.

I wish I wore a hat!! It would be off to our folks who consistently work demonstrating their cooperative spirit.

Pray for your Sunday School leadership and the Nominating Committee as they work on next year's leadership roster.

See Eddie Benton, Becca Andrews, or Mark Seagle to sign-up. This is for ALL HIGH SCHOOLERS and the first activity for all NEW NINTH GRADERS!!!

FAREWELL TO OUR SUMMER INTERNS!!

BECCA ANDREWS

MARK SEAGLE

This summer has been one of the best for our youth. They have been guided by two very special summer interns — Becca Andrews and Mark Seagle. Mark and Becca have been involved in all our summer youth activities, including High School JOY, Middle School JOY, visitation, Middle School Camp, Centrifuge, Back-yard Bible Clubs, and special Bible studies.

Our youth have planned a special farewell for them on August 14. We pray for God's blessings on them both as they return to the University of Alabama. Becca and Mark, we thank you for a job well done!

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH PENSACOLA

'88 SINGLES CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 21 - 22, 1988

The Seagle Say:

UNITY IN DIVERSITY . . .

is never simple or easy. First Baptist Church is a diverse group. There is diversity in:

- economic levels;
- cultural backgrounds;
- educational levels;
- professions;
- racial and ethnic backgrounds.

I have watched us over these past months and see our diversity as a potential major source of strength. We are all different, yet we share the same Lord, wanting above all else to follow Him.

THERE ARE PROBLEMS . . .

in diversity as well. The best among us are prone to being impatient with those who do not follow our pre-conceived concepts of how "to do church." How we worship and what we do to celebrate the presence of God and the saving work of Christ is seldom tied to one particular order of events - but to the heart.

All of us have preferences. We have our own preferences in music, in what we include in each order of service. There is never confusion in our staff concerning the flow, the dignity, the smoothness of our celebration and worship. We are committed not to a "show" - but to worship.

PREPARATION FOR . . .

worship is not optional. I must get ready to sing, pray and be instructed from the Word of God. How do we prepare?

- 1. There must be prayer and in our praying, confession and cleansing.

- 2. There must be expectation. We must expect our heavenly Father to meet us in our needs.

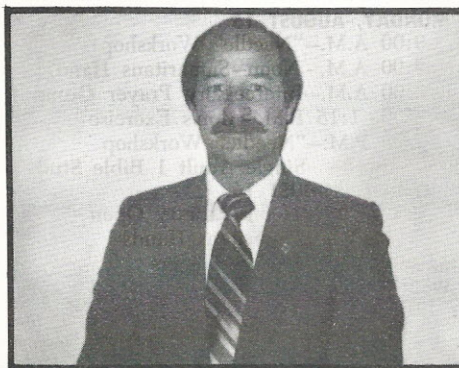

- 3. There must be openness to what the Spirit of Christ is doing in our midst. We never gather without deep and significant needs being present as well. Some are hurting, some are in need of Christ, some are in need of encouragement.

- 4. There must be patience. We must be patient with those under reconstruction.

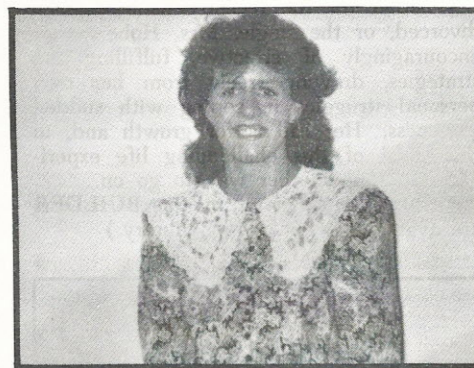

- 5. There must be joy. Every believer should join the celebration with those who have found new direction.

It's pure joy to know His power and presence in diversity. See you 1500 strong Sunday!

KRISTA PAYNE

PERU VOLUNTEERS MEET

Excellent response to the Peru Information meeting on August 7 indicates the vivid interest of our congregation in the Trujillo Mission Partnership.

The first project, scheduled for nine days near the beginning of November, will cost approximately $800 - $900, including $650 airfare. The final design of the project will be determined by the gifts / skills of those whom God calls to go.

If you are interested in exploring the possibility of participating in the fall mission but were unable to attend the Sunday meeting, please contact Jill in the church office.

Dr. James Cecil, Associate Director for Volunteer Missions, has said in both phone conversation and letter that the Foreign Mission Board is very much excited about the possibilities of this long-term relationship. It is his hope that our pioneering efforts can be emulated by other churches in the future.

BOOK REVIEW

By MARTHA DICKSON

NEVER ALONE by Phyllis Hobe.
MacMillan, c1986.

Subtitled: Being Alone Is Not a Time of Waiting, But a Time of Becoming.

Whether for the recently widowed, the divorced, or the single, Mrs. Hobe writes encouragingly of effective, fulfilling life strategies, drawing freely from her own personal struggles in coping with sudden aloneness. Her call is for growth and, in the midst of this challenging life experience, to find another way to go on.

(All books reviewed in the BUILDER are available in the church library.)
