MUSIC AND MEDIA NOTES

BOB MORRISON, Minister of Music

ONLY A LITTLE MORE THAN ONE WEEK remains before our Second Annual PENSACOLA EASTER PAGEANT. It promises to be the spiritual highlight of Easter for everyone who attends. This program presents the Gospel in a most graphic manner; the best and most loving thing you could do for a lost friend or relative is bring them to experience it. They cannot help but be affected!

REMEMBER WE ARE DOING IT TWICE THIS YEAR! The first performance is on Saturday evening at 7:00, with the second one on Sunday, also at 7:00 . . . March 25 and 26, respectively. I'm praying for an overfilled sanctuary each night. Help make that come true. Folks will never again view the sacrifice Jesus made for us quite the same way after witnessing the PENSACOLA EASTER PAGEANT!

OUR SANCTUARY CHOIR IS DILIGENTLY PREPARING for this program. They are such a great group of adult singers. Please hold them . . . and their physical well-being — up in prayer. Pray also for the results of our PAGEANT, that God will use it for His glory and honor.

WHAT A JOY IT WAS TO HEAR AND HOST THE SAMFORD A CAPPELLA CHOIR LAST SUNDAY. I could sense you enjoyed them as well. Thanks to all who hosted these students in your homes. You were an important part of their tour. It's because of folks like you in other churches that make it possible for our own Chapel Choir to tour each summer.

The Seagle Say:

Annie Armstrong . . .

Home Missions Offering count-down has begun. Our church goal is $30,000. Victory Day is set!

Sunday, March 19, is the target date for victory. Let's raise the entire thirty thousand dollar goal in one day. It will require our best effort — together! Peggie and I are preparing our "above and beyond" gift for this special, vital offering.

America . . .

this land we call "our land" is an increasingly secular nation. We are not gaining ground. In fact, every measurable area suggests we continue to lose our cities and our nation. The cost of doing ministry like every other area of life continues to rise. The Home Missions Board struggles with how to address a plethora of problems. The answers are not easy, nor are they simple.

Florida . . .

continues to serve as a "test-market" — or a mission field that's fertile and ripe. Language missions, the homeless, the aging, exploding mega-centers of population, along with the refugee situation in South Central America along with the Caribbean continue to provide the most unusual challenge ever encountered.

It calls . . .

for our best. Let's continue the torrid pace of missions giving and going that has characterized our journey for so many years. I am praying and giving to see the the victory become reality.

Easter . . .

Sunday is just a week away. What an exciting day! The Easter drama as well as the excitement of that "great-getting-up morning" leaves me breathless.

Pray for victory and power as we celebrate the news of His resurrection.

I'll see you 1500 strong in Bible Study Sunday.
