THE SEAGLE SAY:

This week's a first . . .

for me! It's the first time our son, Don, has put together a revival as a pastor. He's done marvelously well. He has led the family of faith to:

- set a lofty attendance goal;
- visit the lost and unchurched; and to
- pray with much earnestness for the revival.

It's the first time I've had the privilege to preach for a son whom God has called, gifted and equipped to pastor. I'm excited, pleased, proud and enthusiastic with the possibilities.

Don and Sherri are being used of God in some special ways as they minister together through the Line Creek Baptist Church. Will you pray for them and us - that God our Father will be honored and that God would revive His people.

The fact that Daniel - two and a half and talking a mile a minute - is there has no appeal - right?!

Dr. Harold Bryson . . .

has asked me to speak to his preaching class Friday, April 28. What a tremendous opportunity to share with our future SBC pastors - engaging them in dialogue concerning this great responsibility of preaching the unsearchable truths of Scripture.

The lecture / discussion provides a wonderful forum for examination and exploration of the practice of preaching. Of course I covet your prayers!

Peggie and I return Saturday, April 29. Thank you for love, support and prayer.

See you 1500 strong in Bible Study Sunday.
