If my people . . . will pray.

2 Chron. 7:14

ONE-HALF NIGHT OF PRAYER

May 26 — 6:00 P.M. until Midnight

Choir Room

A semi-structured prayer time to lift up our sick, shut-ins, the lost in our County and surrounding areas, and pray for the strengthening of our fellowship, affirming and edifying one another.

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Stress . . .

is a dangerous and deadly enemy. The best medical researchers have found stress to be a major culprit in:

- cardio-vascular disease;
- cancer;
- ulcers, as well as various and sundry emotional disorders.

Stress creates unprecedented and unparalleled difficulties. It causes us to respond abnormally to those we love. Stress causes serious depression. Stress strains, and at times destroys, once healthy relationships.

Our City and Nation . . .

are stressed out. The:

- Nation is being ripped apart by drugs.

— City of Pensacola is stressed and strained beyond reason because of serious difficulties in the business community, difficulties that, in fact, touch all of us.

The result of national and local stress is a people frightened, empty and directionless. It's a dangerous situation. The stress being experienced is a killer unless there's a redemptive group to turn to.

My purpose . . .

is not to judge, condemn, advise or quarrel. My purpose is to remind this family of faith of our responsibility to the stressed! We are to:

- 1. Be support without reservation;
- 2. Become an oasis of hope and help;
- 3. Pray for our members and other business leaders who are facing impossible demands;
- 4. Refrain from speculation and idle gossip;
- 5. Become a part of the solution, not the problem. Please do not add stress to our people, City and Nation. They need our love, care and help.

The Urawa . . .

relationship has been wonderful. Bill Santo and First Baptist Urawa Committee have done a fantastic job. Our friends from Japan have been a blessing. I praise our Lord for one of the finest weeks I've ever been a part of. Surely our Heavenly Father blessed us beyond measure.

I'll see you 1500 strong in Bible Study Sunday.
