CARING FOR THE FIRST FAMILY

Every effort is made to provide the very best in pastoral care for the First family. The following information will help you to help the pastor and staff minister more effectively.

-1. Hospital Ministry.

- The pastor or a staff person visits the hospitals daily.
- We seldom receive patient information from the hospitals.
- You would assist us greatly by calling the office when you anticipate going to the hospital, or know of someone going.
- We all observe "no visitors" signs. If we are to be an exception, please let us know.

-2. Homebound Ministry.

- There are 86 people on the homebound list.
- The visitation schedule is:
  - March 2, 1989 - Mr. Santo began visiting.
  - June 5, 1989 - Pastor Seagle began visiting.
  - September 7, 1989 - Mr. Benton visits.
  - December 5, 1989 - Pastor visits.
- In addition - we visit those in crisis when crisis occurs.

Deaths, accidents and needs are responded to as they occur. Please understand, there's full commitment to caring for the First family. That's one of our priorities. You can help us by keeping the office informed. We would much prefer several calls about a need than no call. Never assume we know.

SYMPATHY

The pastor, staff and church family extend Christian sympathy to:

Norma Davis in the death of her brother, Vinson Clenney, July 2, in Cuthbert, Georgia.

Mr. & Mrs. Chris Banakas in the death of their sister-in-law, Bernadine Banaikas, July 4.

Nell Myrick in the death of her sister, Bernadine Banaikas, July 4.

Mr. & Mrs. Dave Haddock in the death of Dave's mother, Miriam Haddock, July 2.

THANK YOU:

A thank you note has been received in the church office from Tamara Ackerman for all the love, prayers, and visits during her daughter Tiffany's recent hospitalization and recovery. "God has truly blessed us as His love shines through each of you. We will never forget your kindness."

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Home again...
that's the great news
for a bone-weary Peru
team. The time in Peru
has been exciting,
demanding, rewarding
and tiring. Our missionaries are wonderful people. They have blessed us, been wonderful models of commitment and have been tremendously responsive.

Their invitation to lead this event indicates great confidence in all of us. You would have been proud of all our team members. They were super-charged, responsive and totally committed to the effort.
We will share the results with you in one of our evening services before long.

Leaving...
is made most memorable by returning home.

Being home is indeed wonderful. There's no place like home, family, friends and church.

July...
is half over. There are so many wonderful possibilities facing us. We have an enormous amount of preparation for the fall. For instance:

- a budget must be adopted;
- Sunday School must be staffed;
- committees must be appointed;
- giving must be caught up;
- a new cycle of CWT must be
launched;
- a new church year must set sail!

Dreaming and planning and praying must be accompanied by doing. Join me in doing what God has called us to do.

See you 1500 strong as we celebrate family.

BOOK REVIEWS

A SAVIOR FOR ALL SEASONS by William P. Barker. Fleming H. Revell, c1986. (232.3 Bar)

Editor of Tarbell's Teacher's Guide, author, and pastor, Dr. Barker defines the warm, supportive, sustaining relationship available in Christ. Helpful reassurances for life's crisis moments--loneliness, moral failure, self-doubt, conflicts, spiritual dryness, grief, aging, guilt, etc.

BESS W. TRUMAN by Margaret Truman. Macmillan, c1986. (B Tru)

Margaret Truman draws a lovingly detailed portrait of her strong-willed, privacy-preferring mother, using personally remembered vignettes and revealing quotes gleaned from extensive personal correspondence at which the Trumans excelled.

From prominent maternal and paternal families, Bess, popular and sports-minded, was in part shaped by the tragedy surrounding her father's death and a complex relationship with her dependent mother. Forging strong character and ideals through this, she went on to become a sustaining partner in an enduring marriage and a protective, supportive mother, in an arena not of her choice.

PRAYER REQUESTS FROM MISSIONARIES

The following are prayer requests from Carol Hylden, Prayer Chairman for Baptist Mission of Botswana.

My request is that you will covenant to pray for the Selebi-Phikwe Baptist Church that God will make each in this church aware of his/her part in stewardship.
Please continue to pray after the revival dates of August 12-16 as the followup time is so greatly important and so often neglected.

- Pray that God would convict each member of how he/she can better serve our Lord through their local church.
- Pray that through this people will be saved that want to really commit their lives to God in service.
- Pray that among our young people and adults some will feel God's call to special service for Him and be willing to follow that call.
- Pray that the team from the USA will be empowered by God's Holy Spirit to cross cultural and language barriers as they present the Word of God.
- Pray that God's harvest will be reaped in abundance.
