The Sanctuary Choir... AND YOU!

SUMMER...WHAT A GREAT TIME TO JOIN OUR SANCTUARY CHOIR!!! I am so proud of this group of adult singers for the splendid job they do of heightening our worship experience. However, the one area where we need to improve is the number of singers we have; we can do this both by getting our inactive members to "plug back in," and also by convincing many of you - our congregational members - to join.

WHEN I INVITE NON-CHOIR MEMBERS TO JOIN (as I frequently do), the almost common answer is, "Oh, you don't need me; there's no room for any more in the choir loft." NEGATIVE! We are not already full. The truth is we do need you. The truth is we desperately want you. The truth is your Christian walk would be deepened by being in choir. And, the truth is God would be honored through it all!

WHY NOT ADD A NEW DIMENSION TO YOUR LIFE? Come this next Wednesday night for our 7:00 - 8:30 rehearsal in the choir room. That's all you have to do to join. I'll be looking for YOU!

PRAYER REQUESTS FROM MISSIONARIES

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Tired...

has a new definition and meaning among those who worked in the Peru Missions Meeting. The schedule--6:00 A.M. until 8:45 P.M. was a "normal" schedule.

That's a long day with children and young people. I brought a team home "bone-weary" tired--but excited!

Appreciative...

best describes the response of our Peru Missions group. Their Missions Meeting is a vital meeting. Business of unusual magnitude is transacted. For instance:

- intense planning is done;
- detailed reports from every mission station is gladly received;
- personnel requests are made;
- the budget is developed and adopted;
- housing, transportation, school and special concerns are considered;
- singing, prayer--much, much prayer is shared.

Our team allowed the missionaries to meet, without interruption, to pray, study and struggle with the need to win Peru to Jesus Christ.

Responsive and...

affirming was our experience. The missionaries were loving, affirming and responsive to the music, preaching and leadership our team provided.

Our team...

Peggie Seagle, Flo Minchew, Barbara Starr, Paul Hughes, Rachel White, Eddie Benton and John Hodges are the hardest-working, most cooperative group I've ever worked with. They put in the long hours--more than fourteen and a half hours every day except Saturday and Sunday, July 8 and 9. They were off "duty" Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

The Peru...

relationship is a healthy relationship. Our missionaries live with some tension and in several cases, real danger. The Peruvian economy is shattered. Poverty is rampant. Lostness is pervasive. Disease and hunger is extensive. Clothing needs are urgent.

Our partnership with Trujillo is both appropriate and vital. I have several urgent recommendations to our Missions Committee that will help us place in priority form the projects that will help expand God's Kingdom in Trujillo.

I'll write more later. Please pray for Hayward and Sherra Armstrong as well as Rodolf and May Dixon; Gary and Sandy Light, Mary Jo French, Wade and Nancy Watts. They are God's choicest servants, open to dynamic leadership and visionary response.

In the meantime--let's reach 1500 in Sunday School and pray for a mighty outpouring of the Father upon us.

Thank you for faithful prayer support. Continue to pray for Martha Trotter, Jack and Betty Logsdon, Jennifer Smith, Rachel White and Barbara Starr. They have a heavy schedule to maintain.
