Rev. Cecil Seagle
The Church Family
First Baptist Church
500 N. Palafox Street
Pensacola, Florida 32501

Dear Pastor and Church Family:

I continue to learn and marvel at God's timing within my life. It is always the correct way to go. God led us together for a short time, and in His wisdom He leads us on. After much prayer and thought I hereby tender my resignation as Minister to Children of First Baptist Church, Pensacola, Florida to accept a similar position at Bon Air Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia.

My work here will continue through August. Sunday, August 13 will be my last Sunday with you and August 15 will be my last day of work here at First Baptist. The remaining 2 1/2 weeks will be vacation which will allow me time to pack and move without pressure.

May God richly bless you in your witness here in this place.

In Christ's Service,

Luci Linnenkohl

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Peru....
 continues to dominate my thinking. I am gripped with:
 - the lostness of
 Peru;

- the poverty of Peru;
- the instability of Peru;
- the medical needs of Peru;
- the scope of training needs facing our missionary personnel.

You have... asked what the Missions Meeting team accomplished. The answer:

- encouragement;
- VBS and music for children;
- a super youth experience;
- challenge, instruction and Bible study for our missionaries--all of which is essential for their emotional and spiritual well being.

Our missionaries need time away. They need rest, fellowship, healing and help. They need to know we care and are praying for them daily.

They need...

time to:

- evaluate their work;
- examine the challenge;
- explore the scope of need and set those needs in priority. The annual meeting encourages every station and missionary to do that and more.

I am impressed...

with our Peru missionaries':

- personal commitment to Christ;
- urgent sense of call to Peru;
- creative thinking as it relates to telling Peruvians about Christ;
- deep concern for all of life;
- sense of humor and togetherness.

Our team came away committed to pray for this strategic mission.

In the...

meantime--Pensacola is our challenge. We are seeing:

- people saved;
- additions;
- excitement and expectancy..

Join me and 1499 others in Bible study Sunday.
