MUSIC AND MEDIA NOTES

BOB MORRISON, Minister of Music

I AM SO EXCITED ABOUT OUR CHURCH..AND WHAT CAN HAPPEN THIS FALL!!! There just seems to be an air of optimism permeating our entire fellowship; I believe it is "God-breathed."

OUR CHOIR PROGRAMS ARE ALSO evidencing this renewed commitment to service in His Kingdom. The Sanctuary Choir senses a challenge to do more than the expected, both in quality of performance and quantity of participants. We are looking "high and low" for new and returned members. Why don't you - YES, YOU - join us next Wednesday at 7:00 P.M.

ALL CHOIRS ARE NOW MEETING for their 89/90 choir year. Here's the run down:

CHOIR	AGE	PLACE	DAY/TIME
Sanctuary Choir	18 & up	choir room	Wed/7:00
Chapel Choir	Sr.Hi/Col	choir room	Sun/4:30
Clarion Choir	Mid. School	choir room	Wed/4:30
Children's Choirs (7)	Age 3-Gr.5	various	Wed/4:30

THE SEAGLE SAY:

The fall...
is getting under way.
What tremendous opportunities! I look at my calendar and see:

- September 17-State
Missions Victory Day;

- October 1 - Parent/Child Dedication;

- October 22 - Foreign Missions Study - Japan;

- November 19 - Great Day

- December 3 - Dr. David Fite, former missionary to Cuba as our speaker. Dr. Fite will launch our Foreign Missions emphasis.

In addition...

we will launch:

- an aggressive Sunday School campaign
in attendance and enrollment;

- an aggressive visitation program in addition to CWT;

- add staff members;

- accelerate our level of giving;

- develop and intensify our prayer
ministry;

- aggressively dream new and exciting
dreams to expand the Kingdom of God;

- launch yet another Peru Missions team
in late October, early November;

- develop one more “Day of Discovery”
before the final whistle of '89 sounds.

Exciting?

No doubt about! The truth is--none of these programs will replace the day-to-day, ongoing ministries that bind us together. The staff and I will continue to:

-1. visit the sick and homebound;
-2. witness to the lost and unchurched;
-3. encourage teachers and class leaders
to grow exciting classes;

-4. baptize those being led to Christ;
-5. plan for the most exciting programs and ministries ever as we meet to worship and celebrate the Glory of God free in our midst.

Attitude...

is half the game! If you come looking to bless and be blessed it will happen. If you come looking for God to touch and change it will happen. If you come looking for the best in the family of faith--that's what you'll find. I'll see you 1500 strong in the family as we meet to worship the One Who is King.
