MUSIC AND MEDIA NOTES

BOB MORRISON, Minister of Music

TWO MAJOR EVENTS HAPPEN IN OCTOBER, and I want to make sure you know about them...plus, encourage you to take part in them.

I: SANCTUARY CHOIR BANQUET

Thursday, October 12, 6:30 P.M.
FBC Dining Room

This is a banquet wherein our adult singers celebrate the beginning of a new choir year! Heard at it will be laughter, entertainment, and inspiration. Many of our very own will be providing the program.

Our goal is to involve all of our choir members and choir prospects...plus! The plus is anyone who is interested in the choir's ministry and would just enjoy spending an evening with us. Tickets are $5.00, and may be purchased in the music office, or the choir room on Sundays and Wednesdays.

II: HARPIST GREG BUCHANAN IN CONCERT

Monday, October 23, 6:30 P.M.
First Baptist Church

Greg is a world class harpist, and we are fortunate to be able to host this concert. He has played at Billy Graham Crusades, Gospel Music Dove Awards, and Southern Baptist Conventions. Many of my friends have had him at their church, and they can't say enough good things about his ministry!

This is definitely a concert that will excite you, as well as encourage your walk with God. It's also a concert to bring your neighbors to. There is no admission; however, a love offering will be taken.

DEACON ORDINATION

BUDGET OFFERING "CATCH-UP" DAY

Sunday, October 8th

The Finance Committee voted to set aside Sunday, October 8, as "Catch-Up" Day, and encourages all members to make a special effort toward a large offering that day.

Traditionally, the final quarter of the year is always the strongest period for financial gifts to the church. It is assumed that this will again be the case, but due to the deficit, it was considered prudent to have a special effort to encourage members to give a large offering at this time.

MEDIA CENTER BOOK REVIEW

PLAYING BY THE RULES

by Stuart Briscoe. Fleming H. Revell, c1986.
(222.16 Bri)

Defining moral decay in terms of current crises--family breakdown, adultery, self-aggrandizement, abortion, property and money management, lying, etc., Dr. Briscoe relates these to the never-changing demands of the Ten Commandments under ten related chapter headings plus a conclusive eleventh chapter showing the need for a changed heart and inner attitudes as the only way to "play by the rules."

OUR CHURCH FAMILY SYMPATHY:

The pastor, staff and church family extend Christian sympathy to:

Mrs. A. C. Johnson on the death of her mother, Mrs. Dillman Shaw, September 19 in Kansas.

The family and friends of Miss Bessie Yates on her death September 20.

Mrs. Dale Carr on the death of her brother-in-law in Gainesville, Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Gray on the death of Paul's brother, David Gray, September 21 in Kingston, Tennessee.

THANK YOU:

The following thank you note was received in the church office:

"Dear Church Family:

We wish to thank our church family for their expressions of love, prayers, flowers, cards, visits and food during Annie Lee's knee surgery and Roger's heart surgery. We could not have made it without people like you filling our hearts with so much love and kindness during these long weeks. We are so glad to belong to a 'Great Family of Love and Faith'.

Sincerely,
Roger & Annie Lee Yonker"

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Birthday...
greetings (and a number of sympathies) have arrived in mass! I think I'm delighted!! I'm happy you remembered. Reading and reflecting on your personal expressions were delightful even at 2:00 A.M. Friday morning.

Rites of...

passage are marked by significant events. Birthdays remind us of several things. The primary thing is that the years allow us to gather friends and relationships that make a vast difference in our lives. It's certainly been true with us.

Your love, affirmation and kindness has been encouraging. Thank you for all the cards and every personal message enclosed.

The fall...

is an exciting prospect. I am encouraged with:

- our Sunday School attendance. We are over 1300 for two weeks and should be on the way to 1500 by March.

- our caring/sharing program. CWT and visitation are geared to go and exciting. We are having people saved weekly. We are seeing an exciting visitation program come together. We are also seeing Sunday School classes minister, reach and lovingly care for those in their class. Reaching and nurturing are two sides of the same coin.

October 8th...

is "Catch-up" day. We must catch our giving up and meet our '89 budget. I hear our talk. "We haven't met our budget in many years," is a self-fulfilling prophecy.

My challenge is simple! Let's:

- pray about our giving habits. Then let's tithe!

- ask God to use each of us to do the impossible. Let's ask Him to use us to meet our budget and exceed it for '89. There's too much at stake not to expect and be a part of the impossible!

See you 1500 strong as we gather to study.

MEDIA MINISTRIES

ATTENTION MIDDLE SCHOOLERS

(Grades 6 - 8)

A four-part video series, "How to Get Along with Your Parents," by Dawson McAllister will be shown during the month of October. Topics of the series are as follows:

Oct. 1	Seeing God Through Your Parents Eyes
Oct. 15	Being a Peacemaker in Your Home
Oct. 22	Learning to Obey Your Parents
Oct. 29	Seeing Life from Your Parents Point of View

"Why can't I go to see that movie? What's wrong with my hair? What do you mean I have to go to church?" To parents with teens, these may be familiar words. Such issues can lead to a communication gap, family arguments, even overt rebellion.

In this four-part series for youth, Dawson McAllister talks openly and directly with young people about how they personally can ease tensions in their relationships with their parents. His message is clear - "If you won't get along with your parents, you won't get along with God."

The series will be shown Sunday evenings at 5:00 p.m. during Middle School JOY. Each student will receive a workbook and participate in a discussion led by Eddie Benton. Make sure your young person is there!!
