DOING WHAT HAS TO BE DONE

BUDGET OFFERING "CATCH-UP" DAY

Sunday, October 8th

The Finance Committee voted to set aside Sunday, October 8th, as "Catch-Up" Day, and encourages all members to make a special effort toward a large offering that day.

Traditionally, the final quarter of the year is always the strongest period for financial gifts to the church. It is assumed that this will again be the case, but due to the deficit, it was considered prudent to have a special effort to encourage members to give a large offering at this time.

Seeing need, then doing what has to be done. When we do that, we're doing the work of the Saviour. That's the legacy He left us.

It isn't possible for one person alone to do all that needs to be done. But the collective support of God's people working through His church can work wonders.

Will you open your heart and renew your commitment to His work? Your gift says more, does more than any number of words. Let's do what has to be done!

MUSIC AND MEDIA NOTES

BOB MORRISON, Minister of Music

OUR SANCTUARY CHOIR BANQUET draws ever closer. The date is October 12 (Thursday), the time is 6:30 P.M., and the place is the FBC Dining Room. This group of adult singers continues to grow; in the last 6 weeks, some 25 new and returned members have been added to our active ranks. We're so excited about them joining, and are still praying for many more to come. Could God be impressing on your heart to use your God-given talent in Sanctuary Choir?

AS NOTED ON THE FRONT PAGE, contemporary Christian pianist Dino will be in concert at the Saenger Theatre on Sunday afternoon, October 15, at 2:00. That alone would be reason to attend; however, much local involvement heightens our interest. Dr. Lynne Lauderdale has selected and is training 4 of her students who will join Dino on five separate grand pianos for a segment in the concert. It's quite an honor for Lynne to be chosen to do this, and we're proud of her!

We're proud also of the fact that two of those four students chosen are from First Baptist Church: Beth Stubblefield and Landon Morrison (no, I did not twist Lynne's arm). Everyone is invited to attend this event; tickets may be purchased at the Saenger.

DON'T FORGET, ALSO, THAT GREG BUCHANAN, world class harpist, will be in concert in our sanctuary on Monday evening, October 23, starting at 6:30. There will be no admission charge for this event; however, a love offering will be taken.

THE SEAGLE SAY:

Dr. Jerry Passmore... pastor of the Olive Baptist Church, is going to be tremendously missed in our City. Dr. John Sullivan and the Board of Missions of the Florida Baptist Convention turned to Dr. Passmore for leadership in evangelism. All who know Jerry know he will excel in this assignment. I've commended Dr. Sullivan in his selection. The Olive congregation has been a pace-setting congregation in evangelism and a leader in evangelism training. Both models are vital to all of us.

Jerry Passmore has been and will continue to be a friend. I have sought his counsel, spoken in the Olive Church and shared with him in prayer meetings. He has demonstrated an unusual compassion and sensitivity to those around him. I will miss his influence and his friendship in our City.

I urge your prayer support for Jerry and Doris as they leave Olive. I also urge your daily prayer support for the Olive family as they seek God's man for this strategic family of faith. We will lift them in prayer daily-praying that God's man for this time will be found.

Great Day...

'89 is on the way. It's different. It's exciting. It's laced with possibility. I urge you to join Gary Garland, Sandy Sansing, Dave Andrews and a host of leaders for one of our greatest days November 19th.

CWT...

is becoming an exciting, dynamic event. With the exception of one Monday evening, we have had people praying to receive Christ as their Saviour. You will see the public decisions over these next weeks. You can imagine the excitement as we return to report and celebrate.

There's room...

for you in visitation. The City and our Church need 100 of us who will go share, go tell, go affirm those who have visited with us.

Join us each Monday at 6:00 P.M. I can hardly wait to see you Sunday. Pray for the services. Pray for those making decisions. Join me 1500 strong for Bible study. I'll see you as we celebrate His presence in our midst.
