Brian's Lines

I have been so pleased with the response to our emphasis on prayer. I have sensed a renewed spirit of excitement and commitment, and that is just what we wanted to see happen. Our Wednesday night times have been very special. Many reminded me Sunday that they are praying every day for our church. All of this is good, because prayer really does make a difference.

Our Wednesday night times have been very special. Many reminded me Sunday that they are praying every day for our church. All of this is good, because prayer really does make a difference.

DEACON ELECTION . . . Seventeen men have been chosen to serve as deacons this year. Thank you for your prayerful involvement in this process. Five of these men have never served as deacons before, and we are planning to ordain them this Sunday night.

THANKS TO THE USHERS . . . I was reminded again Sunday of how quietly, and yet how expertly, the ushers do their work. Very seldom do we commend them for their good job, but I felt compelled to do so today. With the election of deacons, the ushers had to be ready for something a little different this past Sunday. But, as always, they carried off their responsibility in a smooth way. Thank you, men.

NEXT SUNDAY . . . will be a time of training for our Sunday School workers, and then on Monday night we will have our Recognition banquet. We are finishing our finest year ever in Sunday School, but we believe the 1984 - 85 year will be even better. I hope that all of our teachers, those teaching now and the new ones coming on, will take advantage of this time of training and preparation this next weekend. By the way, I had a chance to drop by Mrs. T. D. Turman's class on Sunday morning and congratulate her for completing 65 years of teaching Sunday School! Congratulations.

REMEMBER THESE DATES . . . Family night at the CAC, September 28; Carman in Concert, October 12; High Attendance Night, October 21.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will continue my sermon series on prayer in the morning worship services. The title of this sermon will be, "When Jesus Prayed For Perception" based on Mark 14:32-42. Sunday evening we will have the deacon ordination. I'll see you here for another exciting day.
